

OLD HOUSE

It was Halloween night, me and my friend decided to play truth or dare, in first spin the bottle taught me

Me: "I would choose dare."

Alex: "Good choice Emma hahaha"

Mari: "I dare you to go to the old house with Allen."

Allen: "why me?"

Alex: "why? are you scared hahaha."

They were teasing each other, until they all decided to go together.

Me, thinking to myself: "Good thing they decided to go together"

We were in front in the old house, it was dark, and behind the house was a cemetery. When we entered the front door, the door made a sound.

All of us were terrified

Mari: "I think it's a bad decision"

Alex: "let's go"

She pulled Mari inside, Allen and I just follow them. I was looking around when I saw a lady in white. I called Alex to ask the lady

Alex: "Excuse me miss..."

When the lady turn around she was cover with blood and wounds and holding a scary doll. We scream__ and run to the exit door but the door suddenly close and locked so we don't have choice to stay in one dark room Alex lock the door.

Mari: "I told you it's a bad decision."

Mari is already shaking and about to cry. Alex was looking around maybe she found something.

Alex: "wait where's Allen?"

All of us are looking for Allen, when I look in the cabinet I saw some base-ball bats
We take one for all of us.

Me: "let me lead, I know how to get out of here".

I opened the door I saw Allen already lying on the floor. Alex and Mari were crying. We went to the kitchen and we saw zombies eating the food in the fridge.

Me: "don't make any noise please"

We walk in the kitchen to go in the another exit door but suddenly Alex sneeze and the zombies look at us and they chased us we run in the second floor we saw the lady in white she chased us too until were in the end of the second floor.

Me: "we need to jump here we don't have a choice."

We jumped from the second floor to the first floor. It was not so high so no one was injured. We look backed there so many zombie were almost in the door. Mari opened the door when we were outside. I suddenly laughed and they're confused

Mari: "what's funny?"

I went inside and called Allen they were shock

Me: "aren't you surprised, it all my plan hahaha"

Allen laughed with me

Allen: "she planed all of this? Aren't you wondering why she knew the place and why she lead? The lady in white and the zombies are not true"

Emma and Alex were already annoyed

Emma & Alex: "You guys will regret this."

We just continued laughing.
