

Kevin party

It is a cold Halloween night, Kevin goes to a party to celebrate Halloween. He goes with his friend to the house of his friend that they think is haunted. They start the party and they are having fun with the other people who were there.

Then Kevin goes to the bathroom and the door closed by itself. Then Kevin started to hear people who was knocking all around him. Kevin started to cry and screamed alone in the bathroom. He try to open the door but the door is lock from the outside.

Then he looked on is back and he see a window, he hit it and jumped outside. Then he goes to talk to his friend. Then they go to the bathroom again to see if it is locked but it was not lock and no people was there and the bathroom were empty and the window were not broken

Then Kevin say I promise u that someone locked up me in the bathroom. But his friends start to laugh at him and they say he is just a kid that imagines kids thing. Then Kevin takes his car and goes to his house and thinks back on the thing that have happened.

